

New York Store

Established 1855.
Sole Agents Butterick Patterns.Special
Umbrella Sale

500 Drummers' Samples

Bought at a price that enables us to give you unusual umbrella bargains. They are in different qualities and prices, in black and colors. Five special lots that are worth more than ordinary notice.

PRICES:
57c, 67c, 87c, $1.37, $2.57

Pettis Dry Goods Co.

Our line of canned goods is complete and carefully selected and are not to be compared with cheap stuffs, with which the market is flooded.

ONE OF OUR SPECIALS

Raspberry, Strawberry, Blackberry, Quince, Red Cherry, Damson Plum, Jams, Pineapple and Orange Marmalade.

THE N. A. MOORE CO.

Fancy Grocers

162 and 164 North Illinois St.

Phones 892.

FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY

I will have on exhibition a lot of uncut

DIAMONDS

Just as they came from the mine. You are welcome to come and see them.

C. L. ROST,

Diamond Merchant

15 North Illinois St.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

WE MAKE LIBERAL ADVANCES ON

WATCHES

DIAMONDS

BICYCLES.

AND ALL TRANSACTIONS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

NO. 100 LOAN OFFICE, 100 MARKET ST.

AMUSEMENTS.

Miss Van Sieten Withdraws from the Grand Bill.

Ida Van Sieten, the much-advertised vaudeville comedienne, who presented a very inferior little comedy entitled "A Sporty Education" at the Grand Opera House Monday afternoon and night, was not in the bill last night. When asked about the matter, Shafter Zeigler, auditor of the theatre, said: "We found the act wholly bad and set about to cancel it at once, as we will not intentionally inflame poor features upon our patrons. However, both parties must consent to the cancellation of a contract, so we are frequently compelled to put up with an act that is a failure. Miss Van Sieten cheerfully consented to withdraw the play. In this connection I want to say a word in her behalf. Miss Van Sieten is not to blame. She and Mr. G. A. Stryker gave the little comedy on the Eastern vaudeville circuit for twenty straight weeks, with success. When she came to Cincinnati last week Mr. Stryker dropped out and she was forced to get a substitute with very short notice. She secured an alleged actor from a stock company in Cincinnati, who had given her a few rehearsals, they came to Indianapolis and presented the piece. The new man proved so utterly inadequate that he ruined the play and the work of Miss Van Sieten. Realizing that she could not fulfill her contract in the spirit in which she had signed the plucky little woman freely gave her consent to cancel. She is heartbroken over the disaster that has come upon her and the close of a successful season, and is now confined to her bed at the Lorraine Hotel. We, of course, sympathize most heartily with her in her misfortune, and hope the public will realize that her disappearance situation ought not to be charged to her account."

Edna May "Booned."

LONDON, April 23.—Although Edna May, in "The Girl from Up There," had a kindly reception at the Duke of York's Theatre to-night and received abundant applause, the expectations of the public were rather disappointing, as another "Belle of New York" had been looked for. At the end of the production the curtain was raised in response to the applause from the stalls, while the occupants of the galleries expressed their disappointment by "booning" the friends of Miss May, who were down stairs, indignantly tried to outdo the cheering by sustained applause, and the curtain was raised and lowered several times, amid clamorous approval and disapproval, which lasted for ten minutes.

Notes of the Stage.

Patrons of English's are to be favored by a visit from Jolly May Irwin this season, after all. She is booked for a single performance of her new farce, "Madge Smith, Attorney," the night of May 14.

Theatergoers who enjoy comedy that is quick in action and who wish to hear the latest catchy songs and music will find such to please in the performances now being given at the Park Theater by Charles A. Murray and Olie Kane, supported by an excellent company. The engagement ends with to-day's two performances.

A rare opportunity of hearing a first violin virtuoso for a nominal price is offered at the Grand Opera House this week. One of the three musical Diamonds, European artists, in the vaudeville bill at that house, has attained distinction in his own country by his violin playing, and his work thus far in this city has aroused the greatest enthusiasm.

The village choir plays a prominent part in the splendid Brady and Grismer production "Way Down East," at English's opera house. It is composed of people who can sing delightfully. The choir in evidence twice on the stage and a number of times back of the scenes. Only two more opportunities remain of enjoying this interesting pastoral drama—this afternoon and to-night.

Lincoln J. Carter is said to have provided a strong company for his new melodrama, "Down Mobile," that is the next offering at the Park, commencing tomorrow afternoon, and to have staged the play with unusual elaboration. One sensational episode follows another, and the interest of the spectator is not allowed to flag from the rise of the curtain on the opening scene until its final fall.

Stuart Robson first gave to the public his brilliant impersonation of Tony Lumpkin in "The Stopped Conqueror" in the year 1858. He has played the part a number of times since then, but the greatest revival of Dr. Goldsmith's delightful comedy, which he has seen at English's Saturday afternoon and night of the current week, is said to be on a scale of grandeur never before attempted.

Messrs. Lieber & Co., the New York theatrical producers, have issued a beautiful souvenir of the special productions of Brown's "In a Balcony" and W. B. Yeats' "The Land of Heart's Desire," are to be seen in only a few large cities of the country this spring. Mr. Otis Skinner, Mrs. Sarah Cowell, Mr. Moynie and Miss Eleanor Robson form the incomparable cast of the Browning drama. The great combination will visit Indianapolis for a single performance May 24.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

Mrs. Henry, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. W. L. Horne.

Miss Lena Brash will leave next week for Bellefontaine, O., to visit friends for a month.

Mrs. Bais, of Cincinnati, who has been the guest of Mrs. William Maxwell, has returned home.

Mrs. Alvin S. Lockard, who has been visiting her parents in Freeport, Ill., returned home last night.

Miss Mattie B. Sheppard and Miss Mary Ruppel Trichter, of Brookville, are visiting relatives on Walcott street.

Mrs. W. E. Templeton will entertain the Eastern Society Circle, Oakdale, this afternoon, at her home, 1915 Broadway.

Mrs. Sam Schneewind, accompanied by her son Stanley, of Chicago, is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Ludwig, in Kensington court.

Mrs. Henry Edw. Ford will observe her last reception day this afternoon, from 4 to 6, at her home, No. 543 North Meridian street.

Mrs. Benjamin Harrison and little daughter will spend part of the summer at the seashore and will go to the Adirondacks for August and September.

Mrs. Hervey Bates, Jr., gave a high tea yesterday afternoon, entertaining twelve guests in honor of Mrs. William MacLay Hall, of Pittsburg. Among the guests were Mrs. H. H. Bates, Jr., and Mrs. W. H. Bates.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Wilson entertained at dinner last night in honor of Mrs. William Abernathy, of Kansas City, who is the guest of Mrs. George G. Tanner, and Mr. McKenzie, of Toronto, who is with Mrs. John N. Carey.

Mr. Edward Messick has issued handsome invitations for a dinner at the Denison Hotel Friday night, in honor of Miss Mary L. Bates, of Chicago.

The invitations are decorated with wedding bells in delicate water colors, and the lettering is in gold, with the name of the bride in one corner and in the opposite corner that of Mr. Warren Oakes.

Mrs. and Mr. J. M. Washington were tendered a pleasant surprise Saturday evening by their friends at their suburban home, on East Prospect street, the occasion being their fiftieth wedding anniversary. About sixty guests were present, among them a son, Chester B. Washington, of Omaha, Neb., and Mrs. Gilbert of Washington, who was an old friend of the family. The house was decorated for the occasion, the reception hall with yellow flowers and gold shades on the lights. In the parlors the mantels were draped with white and red crepe paper and white and red flowers were placed about on the mantels and about the rooms. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated with yellow daffodils and yellow lights. An orchestra played during the evening. Those assisting at the dinner were: Mrs. M. B. Washington, a son, Mr. Will Washington, and Mrs. Washington, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Washington, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Washington, Miss Rose and Miss Gunther, Miss Rose Brown and Miss Bryson.

Mrs. Nannie Barbee, of Danville, Ky., who is familiar with the dialect of the Southern mountaineers, will give a reading at the First Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the Young Woman's Missionary Society. There will be a vocal solo by Miss Barbee. The patronesses for the afternoon include Mrs. M. L. Haines, Mrs. John H. Holsby, Mrs. J. M. Holsby, Mrs. John H. Holsby, Mrs. E. B. Martindale, Mrs. Henry Latham, Mrs. Morris Ross, Mrs. John S. Marking, Mrs. O. Butler, Mrs. H. Byers, Mrs. Noble C. Butler, Mrs. J. H. Byers, Mrs. Clara Perry, Mrs. Herbert J. Folz, Mrs. W. W. Woodruff, Mrs. M. B. Wilson, Mrs. P. Dunn, Mrs. W. A. Ketcham, Mrs. W. Harding, Mrs. N. B. Gary, Mrs. J. R. Miller, Mrs. James H. Folz, Mrs. H. C. Slickles, Mrs. J. E. Smith, Mrs. Charles Martindale, Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. R. B. Washington, Mrs. L. H. Wallace, and Mrs. H. L. Wallace.

A PINK TEA.

Mrs. Nathaniel A. Rose and Mrs. Mary Maxwell Kolb were given a tea yesterday afternoon, at their home, 131 North Meridian street, entertaining in honor of Miss Cora Perry, whose marriage to Mr. Warren Oakes will occur next Wednesday. The rooms through the house were beautifully decorated, the parlors and dining room being in pink, the sitting room green and the library red. The chandeliers in the parlors were draped with pink crepe paper, the globes being also covered with pink in rose effect. The doors and stairway in the hall and the curtains in the different rooms were festooned with Southern pink. In the sitting room two shades of green crepe paper adorned the chandeliers, and wall pockets of pink and white were hung. The walls in the library the musicians were stationed. The room was in American Beauty shades, festooned with the pink crepe paper, and the chandeliers to the four corners, and a large wall pocket of the flowers set in the wall. In the sitting room and dining room there were tiny pink lamps, suspended from the ceiling, and a pink crepe paper. The daintily appointed refreshment table was covered with a pink crepe paper, and the center of the table was a French basket of pink carnations and asparagus vine. On opposite corners of the table were pink and white candles, and a row of low candle holders across the rear, with taller ones in front, with here and there a vase of pink flowers. The guests were received in the parlor by Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Knippenberg and Miss Perry. Mrs. Perry was a lovely gown of French pink and pink and renaissance lace; Mrs. Knippenberg's gown was light blue silk, with a handsome gown of pastel blue, trimmed with pink ribbon and lace. The guests were assisted in entertaining during the afternoon by Mrs. D. M. Perry, Mrs. Frank N. Fitzgerald, Mrs. C. L. Davis, Mrs. Lynn B. Millikan, Mrs. W. H. Gage, Mrs. J. M. Holsby, Mrs. W. A. Ketcham, Mrs. M. J. Harris, Mrs. Henry Spang, Mrs. J. M. Holsby, Mrs. J. M. Holsby, Mrs. Benjamin Jones. Presiding at the table in the dining room were Mrs. Rosa Hamilton, Mrs. J. M. Holsby, Mrs. J. M. Holsby, and assisting in serving were Miss Emma Pierson, Miss Laura Fitzgerald, the Misses W. H. Holsby, Mrs. J. M. Holsby, and Miss Harriet Etzel. Punch was served in the second parlor by Miss Lillian Atkins, Mrs. Mabel Rose, among the guests were Miss Mayne Flores, of Connersville, who was with Mrs. F. N. Fitzgerald; Mrs. Tillinghast, of Troy, N. Y., and Mrs. McCauley, of Louisville.

A SPRING RECEPTION.

One of the most delightful receptions of the closing season was that given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. John Miller Lilly, for her sister, Mrs. Blanchard, of Boston. The house was thrown open, and the rooms filled with fragrant flowers. The guests were received in the drawing room, which was draped with pink and white American Beauty roses and ferns. In the library daintily in wall pockets about the room, and on the mantel and book shelves, were pink and white flowers. The room was of sweet peas and pink roses.

THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1901.

REAL ESTATE SWINDLE

THE INCIDENT RECALLED BY A CASE NOW IN THE COURTS.

How an Unknown Man Secured Loans on Property He Did Not Own—High Court Decisions.

The manipulations of a shrewd swindler that attracted considerable attention some time ago were recalled in the suit of William Frettske against James L. Barnett, yesterday. Frettske is suing for $70,000, the amount of money he loaned to a man representing himself to be Albert Allen, but whose real name was unknown. The plaintiff was swindled out of his money by this unknown man, and suit is brought against Barnett, because he was instrumental in negotiating the loan. After the swindle was discovered a man by the name of Hornaday was arrested for being insane, and charged with the crime. Several other swindles were attributed to him, but he has never been satisfactorily identified. Hornaday is now in the insane hospital.

ROCKEFELLER-STILLMAN.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Isabel Goodrich Stillman, daughter of James Stillman, and Percy A. Rockefeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rockefeller, were married at St. Bartholomew's Church today. The wedding was followed by a reception at the Stillman home. The church was handsomely decorated with flowers and ferns. The bride was given away by her father and attended at the altar by Miss Ethel G. Rockefeller, as bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother as best man. The Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, rector of the church, performed the marriage ceremony. The newly wedded couple probably will make a short American tour and later go abroad.

INDUSTRIAL CITY PROSPECT.

A Special Meeting of Board of Trade Will Discuss It.

The manufacturing committee of the Board of Trade met yesterday afternoon with a number of members of the board and Messrs. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

The members of the committee are: Chairman, Justus C. Adams, W. B. Holton, St. Clair Parry, I. S. Gordon and Ford Woods. The others present at the meeting were Mr. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson, and J. C. Chubb, of New York, promoters of the industrial city that it is proposed to establish between Irvington and Brightwood, about three-quarters of a mile east of Brightwood, on the Springfield division of the Big Four Railroad. The new project was discussed by all present, and a great deal of interest was taken in examining plans of the proposed subdivision, prepared by Architect Samuel H. Brubaker.

REAL ESTATE SWINDLE

THE INCIDENT RECALLED BY A CASE NOW IN THE COURTS.

How an Unknown Man Secured Loans on Property He Did Not Own—High Court Decisions.

The manipulations of a shrewd swindler that attracted considerable attention some time ago were recalled in the suit of William Frettske against James L. Barnett, yesterday. Frettske is suing for $70,000, the amount of money he loaned to a man representing himself to be Albert Allen, but whose real name was unknown. The plaintiff was swindled out of his money by this unknown man, and suit is brought against Barnett, because he was instrumental in negotiating the loan. After the swindle was discovered a man by the name of Hornaday was arrested for being insane, and charged with the crime. Several other swindles were attributed to him, but he has never been satisfactorily identified. Hornaday is now in the insane hospital.

ROCKEFELLER-STILLMAN.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Isabel Goodrich Stillman, daughter of James Stillman, and Percy A. Rockefeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rockefeller, were married at St. Bartholomew's Church today. The wedding was followed by a reception at the Stillman home. The church was handsomely decorated with flowers and ferns. The bride was given away by her father and attended at the altar by Miss Ethel G. Rockefeller, as bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother as best man. The Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, rector of the church, performed the marriage ceremony. The newly wedded couple probably will make a short American tour and later go abroad.

INDUSTRIAL CITY PROSPECT.

A Special Meeting of Board of Trade Will Discuss It.

The manufacturing committee of the Board of Trade met yesterday afternoon with a number of members of the board and Messrs. J. W. Lovett, of Anderson